Sports

Writing a Works Cited for Paper 2
General Citation:

Author’s Name. Title of Book: Subtitle if present. City of publication: Name of publisher, Date. Print.
Works Cited

Works Cited

Petracca, Michael and Madleine Sorapure,
Eds. Common Culture: Reading and Writing About American Popular Culture.
6th ed. Upper Saddle River, NJ: Pearson,
In “Fixing Kids’ Sports,” the authors draw attention to Cal Ripkin, Jr. as an essential source who supports their findings on what children are dealing with on athletic fields across the nation. “That Ripken, a perennial all-star, would find common ground with Engh, a sixty-eight-year-old grandfather of thirteen, isn’t quite as surprising as it may sound” (Cary, Dotinga, and Comarow 156).
Embedded Citation

► Look at the way you cite an article with multiple authors

► Look at the way you “frame” /name the source

► Look at the strength of the quote

► Look at punctuation

